

3. You Never Can Tell About a Woman

Henry Blossom

Burgomaster and Willem

Victor Herbert

Grazioso

Burgo.

mf

You can tell a-bout the weath-er, if it's I re-mem-ber on our hon-ey-moon my going dar-ling lit-tle wife, You Said can fi-gure on the mar-ket and you're stay apt sin-gle all your life?" You may hand-i-cap the hors-es and per-

And when I an-swered "No, I think that"

You Never Can Tell About a Woman

8

haps you'll "dope 'em out." But She to cried fig - ure on a wom - an is to un - I a - gain should wed," She cried and sob - bed and sighed un -

10 Willem

al - ways be in doubt! The trou - ble is you can't tel what they til her nose was red! I had the same ex - per - i - ence, but 12

want from what they say, And what they want to - mor - row is - n't just the oth - er way, My wife and I had had an aw - ful

14

what they want to - day. If you do what they tell you, why you fuss that ve - ry day. She said "If I should die would you sel -

You Never Can Tell About a Woman

16

on - ly make them mad, And if you do the op - po - site, you're ect an - oth - er bride?\" And when I said \"You bet your life I

16

ffz colla voce

18

sure to get in bad. For you ne-ver can tell a - bout a wom - an, Perwould - n't, how she cried!

Both

18

ffz

21

haps that's why we think them all so nice, You ne-ver find two a - like a - ny one time and you ne - ver find one a - like twice. You're 24

21

ffz

24

ffz

You Never Can Tell About a Woman

27

ne-ver ver-y cer-tain that they love you, You're of-ten ver-y cer-tain that they

30

rit. a tempo

don't. The men may fan-cy still, that they have the strong-est will, But the 33

wo-men have the strong-est won't!